REEL LIFE

The 2004-2005 school year offered a glimpse into the reel life of many Mayfield students. Surprisingly, seniors walked the plank (in accordance with the senior theme of "Pirates of the Caribbean") with composure on the first day of school to finish a journey they started years ago. The moment was surreal as many seniors overlooked the fact that it was their very last "first day of school." Day after day, freshmen entered the school sporting brand new outfits at 7 am to gossip with friends, while seniors stumbled into homeroom halfway through the announcements in baggy sweatpants and hoodies. This year, the students of Mayfield took school spirit to a new level in their support for the 2004 varsity football team. Fans gathered with painted bodies, green and white clothing, and grilled hamburgers before games at the tailgate. As always, the Mayfield Wildcats found a new way to prove their never-ending enthusiasm and loyalty to the sports teams. In the year 2004, the war on terrorism raged on as candidates George W. Bush and John Kerry raced to become the country's next Commander-in-Chief. The reality of the election's importance was introduced to students both in and out of the classroom. Students and teachers discussed presidential debates, the need for the Mayfield levy to pass, and key issues of the election such as homeland security and stem-cell research. The highly anticipated November election resulted in the passage of the Mayfield levy and John Kerry's concession to incumbent, President George Bush. The students and staff of Mayfield High School continued to strive to make the school year both a fun and unique learning experience. But in actuality, everyone was counting down the days until the next summer.

An Affair to Remember

Tailgating 04

Tailgate [təl'gt] v. -

To participate in a picnic that is served from the tailgate of a vehicle, as before a sports event.

What better an occasion to participate in before a Mayfield Wildcat football game then tailgating? As a Mayfield tradition, football fans of all grades gathered each game, home or away, for one purpose; to support our team! Burnt hot dogs, painted bodies, whirling footballs, and blasting music. Just a few things that sum up the green and white spirit of Mayfield students. Win or lose, the football team of 2004 can easily be compared to the Wildcat tailgaters: dedicated, determined, and full of life.

Homecoming Parade

Our Big Fat Greek Homecoming

Homecoming always creates an air of excitement around Mayfield, and this was definitely the case in 2004 with Our Big Fat Greek Homecoming. Mr. Gadke always reminded everyone about the true meaning of homecoming when our past graduates returned to celebrate their wonderful memories at Mayfield. "Usually when graduates go to college, they gain the freshman 15," said Mr. Gadke, "but these alumni came back looking better than ever."

Weather reports predicted showers for the beginning of homecoming weekend, but no one can rain on Mayfield's parade! Thursday kicked off the homecoming festivities with a parade filled with floats carrying Mayfield's clubs, sports, the band, and our Sweet Sixteen. The bonfire following the parade heightened the excitement for the upcoming football game.

Friday finally arrived and the school waited in anticipation for the announcement of homecoming queen and court. The gym was decorated with beautiful Greek columns and lights setting the Greco-Roman atmosphere. Marisa Young started off the assembly singing the national anthem. Then came the dazzling sweet sixteen escorted down the aisle. Parents and teachers shined with pride in these girls who were beautiful inside and out. Alison Arko amazed the audience as she sang "Take My Breath Away" while Scott Zimmerman and Joe Flannery provided the instrumental accompaniment.

Finally, the moment arrived to announce the homecoming queen and court. The 2004 court members were read by Mr. Gadke. Anne Hu, Danielle Sills, Christina Ippolito, and Jenny Biro took their place on stage. Football coach, Mr. Pinto, stepped up to the podium to announce our 2004 homecoming queen, Stephanie Bandelow. The whole gym erupted with cheers as she received her crown.

Although the Wildcat football team lost a tough game to Nordonia, it did not lessen the excitement of the weekend. Saturday night's dance ended the weekend with a bang! Bandelow summed it up best with, "Homecoming weekend was the best time of my life. This was a once in a lifetime experience, and I am so honored to represent our school this way." The homecoming weekend was once again the highlight of the season.

Starry Night

As the sun went down on a cold and snowy February night, it marked the start of an amazing weekend under the stars. The starry adventure began Thursday evening as the girls of Cats Cabinet worked all through the night getting ready for Friday's assembly. After many hours of work, the gym was finally ready and Cupid's 16 went home to get a few hours of sleep before the big day.

Friday began with a big breakfast at junior coordinator Kayla Jerome's house. Throughout the day, as Cupid's 16 continued to get ready, the school waited anxiously to find out who the King and Queen were going to be. As the lights dimmed at the assembly, the wood gym transformed into a beautiful starry winter night. Mr. Gadke made his infamous speech to begin the show. The mood was set enhanced after an amazing performance by junior Steve Grilley, who sang "Music of Night" while accompanied by sophomore Joe Fladung. Beauty filled the gym as the Cupid's 16 couples were introduced. The excitement continued to increase as the court members were announced. Members included Princesses Jenny Biro, Aimee Calevich, Layla Lamchahab and Megan Vandrak and Princes Michael Ballistrea, Michael Barnes, Zack Brown and Bobby Swanson. Before the King and Queen were announced, the students experienced another breath taking performance. This time junior Anne Markt sang a beautiful rendition of "Someone Like You" accompanied by junior Kat Hoang on the piano. Then came the moment everyone was waiting for. Kayla Jerome came to the podium to reveal this year's King and Queen, Scott Zimmerman and the hard working president of Cat's Cabinet, Erica Thomas.

As the assembly came to an end, the actual day of the dance grew even closer. Saturday morning began with even more preparation as the decorations were transferred to the cafeteria. Once all the decorations were set up, it was time to relax and get ready for the dance. With the hard work of advisor Mrs. Burich, the officers, and junior coordinators, the weekend was a huge success. Every girl in Cat's Cabinet gave their all to help make the 2005 Winter Formal memorable. The girls dedication and time definitely paid off and shone through with each twinkling light.

Wonderful Tonight

“Oh my gosh my hair!” thought senior Hailee Dorflinger as she looked out the window on Saturday, May 14th. She was not alone in her thoughts. Rain, rain and more rain was the weather forecast that day. Miraculously the rain did stop for the Mayfield juniors and seniors who gathered at Normandy Party Center to dance, eat, and have an unforgettable time. The occasion? The 2005 Prom, Wonderful Tonight.

The junior student council began in summer holding fundraisers in order to prepare for this annual high school tradition. The hard work and commitment was well worth it when the lights dimmed and the reality of the evening set in.

Everyone enjoyed dinner and conversation, later though, attention shifted to center stage as it was time to announce the King and Queen of the 2005 Prom.

Court members Michael Barnes, Michael Ballistrea, Garrett Basch, Anthony Jiannetti, Bobby Swanson, Jenny Biro, Anne Hu, Anjana Ravi, Megan Vandrak, and Kacey Zeiser approached the floor as all awaited the opening of the envelope. Junior class president

Christina Wetzel hushed the crowd and announced “the 2005 Prom King and Queen are Anthony Jiannetti and Jenny Biro!” The wild cheers of the attendees certainly showed favor to the results. King Jiannetti later said “I was definitely caught up in moment. I felt honored that my class chose me to represent them as prom king.” Queen Biro agreed and added “I was so surprised and had no idea it was coming.”

As the evening continued, the students danced into the night. Senior Nick Satow remarked “I think at one point everybody, I mean everybody was dancing; even Hailee Dorflinger, whose hair looked great.” In the end, Wonderful Tonight proved to be a dance the juniors and the seniors would never forget.

The Graduate

ABOVE: Salutatorian Kelly Fedak and Valedictorian Julia Samorezov

The class of 2005 gathered one last time on June 4th, adding another chapter to the Mayfield tradition of commencement. The senior countdown officially hit zero. Decked out in their green and white gowns, the soon-to-be graduates mingled with friends and awaited the beginning of the ceremony.

Salutatorian, Kelly Fedak welcomed Superfriends, family, and everyone in attendance followed by a greeting from Superintendent Dr. Phillip G. Price. Senior Class President, Kacey Zeiser, reminisced about the past, while Student Council Vice President, Anthony Jiannetti, motivated us to follow our dreams. Valedictorian, Julia Samorezov, challenged the graduating class to make a difference after high school and leave a positive impression on everyone they meet.

The speeches were completed and it was time for everyone to line up. One by one, the seniors walked across the Palace Theatre stage to receive their diploma. The 2005 graduates were filled with a feeling of accomplishment as they went back to their seat and moved their tassel to the left, signifying the end of their high school careers, and a fresh start for the future. As our class motto goes, "Every new beginning comes from some other beginning's end."

A⁺ ACADEMICS

"Intelligence plus character—that is the goal of true education."

A Beautiful Mind

"The most incomprehensible thing about the world is that it is at all comprehensible." —Albert Einstein. How could someone say that math is not one of the most important classes of the day? Our wonderful, highly educated math department strived to teach their students as much trigonometry as possible.

One hundred and six students took part in the American Mathematics Contest on February 1, 2005, and these students did exceptionally well. Junior Shenwen Huang took first place in the school and ranked 37th in the state. Junior Victor Kitsis tied for second place in the school with Senior Ryan Santora, as they placed 192nd in the state.

Mr. Donoghue's Calculus BC classes took part in the Continental Math League Calculus competition, a four part test in which the classes together finished in second place in the state and fourteenth in the country. The schools top scorer was Julia Samorezov, closely followed by the runner up Jenna Masterbonno.

Although the math department was full of great teachers, the end of the 2004-2005 school saw the retirement of one of the best. Mrs. Mastrobuono blended humor, coined phrases, and a pure joy for teaching to make a the classroom a place to mold minds. She excelled in helping high school students understand underlying concepts of study. Goodbye Mrs. Mastrobuono and good luck with everything the future will hold.

Our great math department has supplied our students with a stockpile of math equations, functions, and variables. Every single student will leave Mayfield with a superb math education and have a statistically significant chance of achieving success.

October Sky

"Do not be afraid of science" was the message Mr. Ward sent to all the students of Mayfield High School. Life was full of questions, and, hopefully some of those questions were answered as students went through the science program. The science program explored and explained not only the study of human life but the life of animals, plants, and the environment. Sophomore Adam Nickels said, "In my Biology class we dissected frogs. This allowed me learn about the internal make up of a frog and species of its nature."

In 2005, the science classes participated in many exciting activities such as the meteorology balloon launch and the viewing of a lunar eclipse. The meteorology class participated in the first annual balloon launch to learn how far a helium balloon would travel. The farthest balloon made it all the way to central Indiana, while the shortest distance was Brookpark, Ohio. Also, in mid-October, Mr. Lammert's astronomy class enjoyed the wonderful opportunity to view a lunar eclipse.

The students of the AP environmental science class learned the importance of protecting the planet by studying the way the environment worked. Mayfield High School implemented a school-wide recycling program. Student volunteers went around the various classroom and made sure that the paper recycle boxes were emptied once a week. Junior Christina Polizzi said, "It was a great way to help the environment and to know we were doing everyone a favor by conserving paper."

The Science Olympiad team continued to be a success in 2005 as Division B traveled to state finals and Division C placed in the top of 25 schools of Northeastern Ohio.

Nobody said better than the director of NASA Michael Griffin, "The deeper we penetrate the unknown, the more vast and marvelous it becomes."

Dolby Surround Sound English 4.0

English class is one that everyone has had to take since they can remember. Everyone knows that English class consists of reports, books, stories, grammar, and essays. The 2004 - 2005 school year gave Mayfield a whole new look on the web, thanks to the new Web Design class, an elective in the English Department. Students in the class worked to improve the Mayfield Internet site by providing more facts, pictures, and sports scores. As a result, the web page was better than ever for students, parents, and staff.

The ninth and tenth graders enjoyed participating in re-enactments of Shakespearean plays with the help of the Great Lakes Theater actors. The actors helped them to better their acting skills and gain a greater appreciation of the works. The freshmen English classes hosted the fourth annual Romeo and Juliet gallery which feature art, music, video, and costumes representative of the play.

Of course, there were the essays, the grammar, and the usual short stories and literature. The annual poetry day, held by Ms. Beery, was an overall smash with the Connections classes. These classes, and many more, prove that English can be more than just reading and grammar, but instead, a whole world of new opportunities of fun for all. These classes have given students a completely different outlook on their English courses throughout the years.

The ability to speak a foreign language competently and gracefully is a difficult challenge; one of many that Mayfield students are mastering today. Between the pages of “hola,” “ciao,” “guten tag,” and “bonjour,” students found much more than just words. They found a new world of people, culture, and a completely different part of themselves. These foreign languages also help students to gain a better understanding of grammar, an essential part of the English language.

Foreign language classes were not just hard work and hours of practice, but also classes filled with laughter and students conversing in different languages. Rounds of “Happy Birthday” were sung in multiple tongues around the school and many cultural days were celebrated. The environment, students, teachers, and material all add up to help make Mayfield and its foreign language department something very special.

Dodgeball

One of the most important lessons one will ever learn in school is the five D's of dodgeball "Dodge, Duck, Dip, Dive, and Dodge." As the physical education classes spent everyday throwing dodgeballs, playing softball, lifting weights, swimming laps, and competing in the highly intense sport of badminton, the health classes studied how our muscles react and enable us to participate in these games.

The health teachers covered everything there is to know about the human body in a relatively short period of time. From nutrition and diets to sleep and REM cycles, every student became experts of the human body. As sophomore Scott Kravitz said "Mr. Booth taught me everything there is to know the human body and life."

Meanwhile Mrs. Baron and her team of Physical Educators led the battle against apathy by pushing students to preform at peak ability in every sport imagineable. Mr. Kain remains undefeated in both badmitton and pickleball, but the students are getting ever closer to ending his reign. Students will one day overcome overearing and laziness, but until then the hardworking Physical Education and Health staff will teach us how to properly eat and instill a proper work ethic.

"Isn't learning fun?" Mrs. Czikray shouted, referring to the curriculum changes that occurred as a result of the Ohio Graduation Test. The new testing put a lot of pressure on students and teachers alike, but Mayfield prevailed. Mr. Beck put the O in OGT." His world history class realigned their entire schedule and began the school year in the middle of their textbooks. Although much of the curriculum changed, the department still incorporated field trips, speakers and special projects.

The traditional Friday morning donut sales continued to be a success. The proceeds from the sales helped Model UN and the World Affairs Club continued to be a powerful force as they debated their way to victory in both local and national competitions.

Teachers continued to focus on the current events, especially the war in Iraq. Students participate in special projects that provided support to the troops who with persistent in the fight for freedom overseas. Letters and packages were sent to show the support and appreciation of the Mayfield students.

The freshmen class took the annual Washington D.C. trip. The students visited many monuments and museums such as the Holocaust Museum and the Smithsonian museums. The trip allowed the freshmen class to get a first hand look at the United States government. The class spent time in the Capitol watching the Senate work. Mr. Paglio said, "The trip allows the students to actually see what they have been studying during class. It also provides the students with answers as they see struggles our nation and its people have endured to preserve freedom."

As students continued their studies, history continued to happen around us and the Mayfield students and staff made sure that nothing was left out for future generations.

The Breakfast Club

The many unique electives offered at Mayfield High School in 2005 truly allowed students to expand their creativity beyond the conventional classroom setting. Classes available for students to experiment with ranged from art to technology. The break from hardcore thinking was appreciated by all who participated in an elective.

Electives gave students an opportunity to enjoy their own particular interests. Students interested in stars took astronomy; those who liked taking pictures took photography. For seniors, cheffery was like a reward for making it to their final year. It helped teach ways of creating new meal ideas, as well as life skills. Drama was for those interested in learning about comedy, tragedy, and performance arts.

The devoted teachers at Mayfield High School provided ways to help each individual student with expressing their own interests. Each class offered unique opportunities to explore an area that students found more exciting than the required curriculum. Electives kept students interested and attentive during each day of the 2004-2005 school year.

Men (and Women) at Work

If you ventured into the vocational wing of Mayfield High School, you would be bombarded by clinks, rings, taps, and whizzes; the many sounds of the vocational programs offered at Mayfield. All of the programs gave students a real life look at different careers and familiarized them with the business world. Excel TECC offered career technical programs within the high school curriculum that kept pace with business and industry; in preparation for employment or continued education.

One of the most popular programs at Mayfield was cosmetology. This program interested many students because it is "a great experience and the perfect way to earn money during college." Mrs. Hummell, the instructor for the program, added that cosmetology was a "growing industry with the potential for an excellent salary." The class allowed the public to come and get their hair done in order for the students to practice their skills.

All of the programs prepared the students for a specialized career in a particular field. For example, Computer Information Systems provided students with a background in computer repair, computer networking, and web page development. Mr. Kaminsky commented, "These skills will assist the students in the future with a career in various fields."

Each student who left a vocational program in 2005 did so with a better understanding of a possible future career and exciting new professional choices.

All the World is a Stage

You knew them when

As with any performance that consists of actors and actresses, there is drama both on and off the stage. The fall production, "I Never Sang for my Father", presented the actors with the challenge of portraying characters that were in some cases three or four times their own age. Every person contributed their share to the play and to the lives of those around them. "I Never Sang For My Father" was a somber play about a middle-aged man striving to accept the inevitable sadness in the world. Director Mr. Paxton said, "The dramatic needs of the production forced many of the actors to delve deep to make emotional connections with the characters. In many cases, they needed to tap into emotions they have yet to even experience."

Many of the cast and crew members believed that the play resonated well with the audience because of the story's ability to really hit home. Junior Katie Weber said "This play was a very emotional play, not only for the actors and crew members, but for the audience as well."

This thirteen cast-member play was not without its laughs. Though stressful throughout, the cast and crew enjoyed many moments of fun, laughter behind the scenes.

Bravo to the cast and crew for an exceptional job on Mayfield High School's fall play performance. Kudos to director Mr. Paxton, and assistant director Ms. Morland. The combination of hard work and dedication truly produced a magnificent show.

And now they are STARS.

Only the fools missed the spring production at Mayfield High School. The spring play, made the audience chuckle with delight with its zany humor and slapstick comedy. While many players from the fall play returned, there were some new actors to the scene. Freshman Mike Schmitt was not a novice to the stage but Fools was Schmitt first time on the Mayfield High School. Making his debut on stage was sophomore David Goldshtein. Goldshtein had a phenomenal performance as Mishkin.

The spring production, "Fools," was challenging in that it required the actors to learn a Russian accent, not an easy task. Director Mr. Paxton said, "Being that "Fools" is a comedy, the actors also had to learn the importance of comedic timing and appropriate delivery of lines."

"Fools," by Neil Simon is the story of a cursed Ukrainian village where each person was more dim-witted than the next. The residents of this town wander around aimlessly with no purpose in life, causing trouble unintentionally. Leon Tolchinsky, played by sophomore Jon Gellot, is the teacher who stumbles upon the town and hopes to save it from stupidity. The catch? If he cannot cure the villagers of their stupidity within twenty-four hours, he will become another victim of the curse.

Together, old and new players put on a fine production, continuing the tradition of great high school theatre. Once again, the cast and crew worked endlessly to create a masterpiece on stage. Crew members worked countless hours on the stage and behind the scenes to help with the creation of the plays.

Stephanie Bradley

"In both productions, the actors not only met the challenges presented to them but they far exceeded my expectations."

Mr. Paxton

Saturday Night Fever

The 2004-2005 Mayfield High School year began with thrilling performances by The Limited Edition Show Choir. The air was filled with "Everlasting Love" and it was great to be back again! The Limited Edition members began practicing and rehearsing even before the school year started, meeting ten hours a day for one week during summer break. They journeyed into the "world of showbiz" knowing that their dedication and teamwork were the keys to success for an amazing, award winning show.

Musical director, Mr. Glosser and Instrumental director, Mr. Vaughn were joined by talented choreographer, Becky Slivka. Mayfield was lucky to work with such a winning team.

The Limited Edition traveled to a variety of places, from Twinsburg all the way to St. Clairesville on the Ohio University northern campus. The group kicked off their season attending the annual Twinsburg High School festival, a tradition for the choir. Mayfield hosted their own festival a few days later. Show choir put on amazing performances that evening which included solos from Steven Grilley, Jessie Morgenstern, Danielle Sills, Elliot Zetzer, and Jessica Finney. The weekend of October 28th was reserved for Perry High School's festival. The choir attended singing and dancing their hearts out in preparation for the upcoming show choir competitions.

The next voyage was to Ada, Ohio for the first competition of the year. Everyone was "true to their heart" giving excellent performances that rewarded the group with trophies for first runner-up in their division and second runner-up in the entire competition. At the annual Brush High School competition, Mayfield took third runner up beating many other schools. It wasn't an easy feat, as they were up against some very talented show choir groups from all over Ohio.

As the 2004-2005 show choir season neared the end, the Limited Edition traveled to St. Clairesville, Ohio for their last competition. They placed second runner-up in their division and received an award for being 8th place overall, out of 16 show choir groups. Very impressive! A performance at Lakeland Community College was added to their schedule giving members another unforgettable night. Another spectacular year ended with the final show in the Mayfield Auditorium celebrating the talent of the 2004-2005 Mayfield High School's Limited Edition Show Choir.

Children of Eden

Children of Eden, the annual musical production, explored the story of the creation of Adam and Eve and Noah's journey with his family. The audience was taken back in time as the actors and stage were transformed into biblical scenes. The cast, crew, orchestra and production staff all worked together to astonish the audience.

Practice began three months before opening night and ran approximately four hours a night. The cast and crew formed many friendships. The leads were played by junior Steve Grilley who played the roles of Adam and Noah, and senior Alison Arko who played the roles of Mama and Eve. Also starring in major roles were senior Ryan Dick who portrayed both Abel and Ham, Jessica Finney played Aphra, Danielle Sills played Yonah, sophomores Morgan Thomas-Mills played the roles of Seth, Shem, Snake, Jon Gellott portrayed both Cain and Japheth and Megan Roose played Aysha.

In addition to the talent of the Mayfield students, newcomer, Ted Rood played the role of Father. Rood, the director of vocal music and drama at Roxboro Middle School and Musical Director at the Community Church of Chesterland was excited to participate in the production.

The ensemble cast provided support to complete the story and add to the mood and music. The talented cast included actors of all ages and backgrounds which added to authenticity of the story. Musical director, Mr. Glosser, chose a challenging production that pushed the actors and dancers to a new level of performance.

The Mayfield High School musical went beyond the typical production. "We had a great time and by the last performance we had all become close. It was a wonderful experience both on and off the stage," said senior Jessica Finney.

DRUMLINE

The Pride of Mayfield made its mark in Mayfield High School once again in 2004. Under the leadership of band director Mr. Sanford and assistant directors Mr. Palermo, Mr. Turk, and Mr. Brookhart, not only did the band play at every football but hosted the annual Mayfield Band Bash and finished the season with the traditional Halloween performance.

With a week at band camp and endless Wednesday night rehearsals, the marching band made the high school proud by entertaining spectators at every football game and numerous parades. Brookhart said, "This group of students provided many fond memories and made beautiful music together for me to listen to and direct. I wish those special seniors that I love dearly and will never forget much luck in the future."

Along with the marching band, the Pride of Mayfield consisted of three concert bands and two jazz bands. The jazz bands performed and scored well at many festivals and the concert bands entertained friends and family at the holiday, winter and spring concerts.

"This past year was the best season of my life," says band president senior Kristen Satterlee, "I will never forget it."

Anne Marie Rogan

Gotta Kick It up!

ABOVE: The season could not have been a success without flag and catette advisor, Mrs. Violante and our #1 fan, Baby Jude.

Football games would not be the same without the infamous halftime performance of the Pride of Mayfield. But even the band performance is not complete without the girls in green and white. From hot summer days to cold rainy nights, these girls never forgot their one goal: to entertain their fans.

The season started with tryouts that added 10 new girls to the group: five flags and five catettes. Summers were filled with community parades in Mayfield Heights and Highland Heights. Soon after, the well-known week of band camp began. Both corps worked extremely hard, making sure the girls were ready for opening night. All of their work and dedication definitely paid off and the following games were a big success.

Friday pre-games began with the traditional pasta dinners. The girls switched off, dining at a different house each week. Not only did the dinners mean good food, great laughs, and time to prepare for the game, but it also gave the girls a chance to bond.

The season was great with the help of the senior catette captains, Absera Melaku, Danielle Sills, and Jenna Mastrobouno, and the flag captains, junior Jen Jiannetti and senior Laurel Gans. With the captains taking charge, the girls were always ready to perform with great routines at every game.

Although there were tough times, the girls made it through with new friendships and long lasting memories of a season filled with fun.

Hollywood High

As soon as the curtain went up on the 2005 Senior Talent Show "Hollywood High," the audience knew it was going to be a huge hit! The talent show displayed Mayfield's talent on many levels. The audience enjoyed comedy, dance, music and T.V. spoofs.

The seats and aisles were packed with a lively audience, all anticipating the next talented act. Many of the acts were based on television programs such as Fear Factor and movies like Mean Girls. Senior class president Kacey Zeiser, along with the other senior class officers and delegates, spent countless hours coordinating and organizing this successful event. Senior class advisor, Mr. Paxton said, "the show was a huge success thanks to the dedication and hard work of the senior class officers and delegates."

The evening of entertainment filled the auditorium with cries of laughter and gawking awes. Jason Tam's spoof on the typical Asian stereotype was hilarious! The audience laughed from beginning to end. Along with Tam's amusing skit were various talented performances by such artists as Teala Thomas and her backup dancers, the SDA dance group, and the moving vocal stylizings of Marissa Young, to name a few. Who could forget the NStink's performance? The audience laughed, they cried, but most of all, they were left the auditorium truly amazed by the talent that Mayfield High School students possessed.

The true test of success came Monday morning when the student body was still buzzing and reminiscing about the talent show night.

Although gearing up for the Senior Talent Show was a stressful project, in the end all the efforts paid off and the star studded production left everyone entertained.

That Thing You Do

The 2004-2005 school year was a transition year for Student Council with the addition of new advisors, Mr. Turk and Ms. McBride. They helped the council uphold the longstanding tradition of promoting leadership, community service, and school spirit. Members began working in the summer when each class held car washes in order to raise money for the upcoming events.

The effects of Student Council were apparent from the very first day of school. In September, many members participated in both the Buddy Walk and the AIDS Walk in order to raise money and awareness for two worthy causes.

Our Big Fat Greek Homecoming was the theme for the annual Homecoming weekend. Countless hours were spent preparing for this fun-filled event. All the hard work paid off, and this was apparent by the success of the parade, bonfire, and dance.

During the holiday season, the combined efforts of each class went toward buying gifts for five families in need. Also, in the spirit of the holidays, Student Council hosted a holiday breakfast for children at the Mayfield elementary schools. The proceeds from the breakfast were used to buy books for underprivileged children in the Cleveland area.

The next major activity was the Harvest for Hunger campaign. The carnival and volleyball tournament were huge successes. The community donated money and cans of food.

As the school year came to an end, members looked forward to celebrating a successful year at the farewell picnic. Sad goodbyes and many thanks were expressed towards President Julia Samorezov and Vice President Anthony Jiannetti.

Show me the Money

Year after year, Mayfield students show their true giving spirit during the United Way campaign. Sixteen groups of seniors dressed up in costumes, sold candy, and had raffle contests to raise money for this worthy cause. They gave up lunches, study halls, and free time to collect donations from the staff, students, and community.

The expectations for the class of 2004 were not as high because the senior class was small, but those expectations were shattered early. The class had a goal of $10,000. The class of 2002, who holds the record amount, $15,282, had over 325 seniors participating. The class of 2004, who consisted of only 295 students now holds the second place spot donating a record high amount, $15,002. Part of the money raised went to aid the residents in Florida who suffered huge losses due to the four hurricanes that hit the state.

Senior celebrities, underclassmen, and teachers contributed not only money but their time to the success of the campaign. The first place group was the Boxers, raising $2391.91. Trailing by only a small margin was the Dodgeball Association who raised $1832.50 and third place went to the Police Officers at $1327.99.

The pride and enthusiasm of the Mayfield family shined through the generous giving. Co-advisor, Mrs. Czikray, said, "The class of 2005 went above and beyond our expectations and made this campaign a great event."

Subliminal Messaging Prohibited

Growing up in today's society, youths and adults alike face the challenges of drugs, alcohol, and tobacco. Mayfield Teen Institute (TI) proudly stated their message of anti-drugs, alcohol, and tobacco use. Teen Institute is a program of peer education for the prevention of chemical abuse. Membership is open to 9th through 12th graders willing to attend a two-day workshop in the fall and come to weekly meetings to plan T.I. programs. The group promoted honest expression of feelings, responsibility for one's own actions, attitudes of acceptance, warmth and support for the chemically dependent person and his family.

Through various programs, Mayfield Institute helped the "prevention cause" by attending various SADD and MADD organizational meetings, holding prevention nights, and traveling to "spread the word" to the youth of Cuyahoga county. TI members were always active sponsoring a variety of in school awareness campaigns as well. The annual Red Ribbon week promoted anti-drug lifestyles whereas the Seatbelt Campaign educated drivers to the importance of being safe. The biggest challenge TI undertook was tobacco prevention. Many teens faced peer pressure to smoke cigarettes. Mrs. Fleck said, "TI members undertook tobacco education with the fourth graders and hung anti-tobacco posters throughout high school."

With the sad passing of Teen Institute member Aleksandra Tsirulnik, Mayfield TI raised money in order to honor the memory of their deceased friend. Members planted a tree in her memory on May 23, 2005. The tree was planted in front of the 8-9 building. Senior Kristen Satterlee said, "Although Alex was a quiet person she was an indispensable member of our group and her memory will continue to live through us."

In addition to various fundraisers and prevention programs, Mayfield TI began to re-define themselves as a group with new ideas, activities, and a lot of planning. Congratulations to the 2005 Mayfield TI seniors for making healthy lifestyle choice during their high school years.

O Brother, Where Art Thou

The 2004 - 2005 school year brought yet another success for the big sibs/little sibs club. The club became one of the biggest clubs at Mayfield High School with over 100 members. This mentoring club, better known as SIBS, was a social club whose purpose was to mentor younger students in their integration into high school academic and social life. The club provided peer support to eighth grade students by teaming them up with junior and seniors. The older students provided peer support and encouraged younger students to build meaningful relationships and become involved in school activities.

SIBS participated in a variety of fun-filled activities throughout the school year. These activities included a kick-off breakfast, Wild Cat Jungle, Captain's game, a Cavs game, attending the fall play, and boys and girls basketball games. In addition to the outings, the club also sponsored several fundraisers such as the Leukemia/Lymphoma fundraiser and a book drive.

The club advisors, Mrs. Beatty and Mrs. Fleck, were great influences and both felt that the popularity and success of the club was because of its wonderful members.

Living in America

P.R.I.D.E was a service club dedicated to educating and promoting the ideal of tolerance. P.R.I.D.E is an acronym for People Recognizing International Diversity and Ethnicity. Tolerance of various cultures, race, gender, and viewpoints were encouraged through the many events sponsored by the club.

Each year P.R.I.D.E organized and coordinated two cultural dinners. The 2004-2005 school year group chose to host cultural dinners featuring food and entertainment from the countries of Ethiopia and Russia. At a dinner one would see cultural dances, hear speeches about the history and culture of the selected country and enjoy a delicious meal!

P.R.I.D.E educated the students of MHS through its monthly display case about a selected culture. The display showcased a different culture each month. An event that the members really enjoyed was the tolerance seminar that was facilitated by P.R.I.D.E for the 8th grade class. Each year, students who hosted this event would focus on one major goal, promoting tolerance and to encourage acceptance of fellow classmates regardless of their background.

Mayfield High School is a school with a wide variety of cultures and viewpoints. P.R.I.D.E members took great honor in recognizing and appreciating all people and treating them with respect.

School House Rock

Many people had no idea what a Rock a Thon was until Ms. Cioffi brought it to the students' attention. She planned and organized this fundraising event to raise cancer prevention awareness and money for two beloved teachers at Mayfield High School who were battling cancer.

Ms. Cioffi commented by saying "two members of the staff were hurting and we rallied for them when they needed us." The student body jumped on the bandwagon without hesitation to support Ms. Cefaratti and Mr. O'Donoghue who were both in the fight of their lives. In their time of distress, the students spent nine hours on a Saturday in March to rock a rocking chair constantly for entire nine hours as a fun test of endurance.

Not only did the 100 participating students and school come together, but over 50 local businesses donated prizes and food for the event, and another 20 staff members joined the event as relief rockers. Over $6,000 was raised and split between Ms. Cefaratti and Mr. O'Donoghue. Ms. Cefaratti said, "Words cannot express the appreciation and gratitude I have for the students and staff at Mayfield." Ms. Cefaratti donated part of her portion to Twinsburg's Relay for Life, a cancer fundraising event.

This charitable event was for two special and deserving people who taught lessons both in and out of the classroom. The strength and perseverance they showed all of Mayfield will not soon be forgotten.

One of a Kind

Every Thursday morning at 7:15 a.m. the bell tolled in room 101 for the start of the weekly Key Club meeting. The group rose to say the Pledge of Allegiance, and the Key Club pledge. So what was Key Club all about? Many students were unaware of the amount of hard work and dedication put into this club to carry out services for the school and community. Key Club itself is an international organization made of schools all over the world. At Mayfield, it was a dedicated bunch of students who carried out projects to better the local community as well as and other countries.

During the 2004 - 2005 school year, the club participated in several projects both to raise money and provide free services to others. The Aids Walk, Hospice visits, nursing home visits, and Halloween party are just a few. The Halloween party was held in the Mayfield Village Community Center and consisted of games, prizes, face painting, a haunted maze, and a large group of children and Key Club members in scary costumes. Seeing all the young kids dressed in bumblebee and Cinderella outfits with huge smiles on their faces was priceless.

If you happened to attend the Winter or Harvest for Hunger Carnivals, Key Club ran the much enjoyed cookie decorating table, where you designed cookies with frosting and sprinkles galore. Key Club was responsible for creating the delicious homemade fudge which made the perfect Valentines Day gift, and also for continuing the peace link tradition extending through the hallways.

Megan Vandrack, Stephanie Barnoff, Caralyn Olie, and Rachel Liou did a superb job of leading the club in fun and innovative events throughout the year. It's no easy task to devote so many hours to serving others, but Key Club officers and members did it out of the desire to help others. If a student wants an opportunity to help out, Key Club would be the club to join. It is made up of a group of students who benefit others, and have fun doing it.

"Part of being a champ is acting like a champ. You have to learn how to win and not run away when you lose." — Nancy Kerrigan

FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS

August 2nd, 2004, Coach Larry Pinto stood in front of the 2004 Wildcats preaching one thing, continuing the tradition of the Mayfield Football program. Coach Pinto told his Cats that the season ahead would be a rough one, but with hard work and dedication, they would perform at incredible levels. And they did just that.

The Cats started their season with non-conference games. These games showed that the Cats would stop at nothing to achieve excellence. The Cats opened the season with an amazing 31-7 victory over Villa Angela - St. Josephs (VASJ). Then the Cats battled for their lives against Willoughby South. They showed an unbelievable amount of heart, fighting to the bitter end. Senior captain, Soren Engbert intercepted a pass in overtime to seal the 28-21 victory. After five games, the Cats prepared for the vicious WRC games.

The brutal WRC North showed that it would take a team with unbelievable talent to come out on top. The Cats never gave up and fought every team despite records and reputations. The Cats beat archrival Brush High School, with a devastating 27-0 shut out. Nordononia squeaked by Mayfield with a 13-10 victory in which the Wildcats marched 77 yards in 40 seconds, barely missing a potential game-tying field goal in the final seconds of the game.

Senior captains Michael Barnes, Engbert, Michael Ballistrea, and Michael Golias were satisfied with how the team came together and played extremely well. "Despite injuries, both temporary and long term, the team played with a lot of determination and enthusiasm knowing that we were good and we were going to prove it," said Ballistrea. "I don't think anyone on the team could have tried any harder to help the team, and that was the best part of trying to lead this team." A special congratulations goes out to Engbert, Golias, David DiVita, Ryan Goldberg, Dan Byrne, Matt Pinto, Jeff Sova, Ryan Smith, Barnes, Joey Thomas, Jason Dasher, Brian Sullivan, and Nick Cannavino who received WRC All Conference honors. Matt Pinto said "If you were to judge success by heart and courage, we had a very successful season." In the end, the Wildcats continued Mayfield's tradition and proved to everyone that hard work and dedication can lead to excellence.

The 2004 Lady Cats volleyball team brought pride and excitement to Mayfield with a winning season. Conditioning and workouts began in late August, and the girls were eager to start playing. They started the season with a victory against Mayfield's rival, the Brush Arcs. The momentum from the first win gave the girls the confidence they needed to continue to bring home victories. Although they suffered some defeats, the Lady Cats always used the experience to push harder at the next match. After a sub-par regular season, the girls regrouped and had a strong post season. They charged through Shaw, Glenville and Riverside all the way to district finals. Unfortunately, a strong Mentor team defeated the Lady Cats in a match that went down to the wire.

Strong leadership came from seniors Melissa Hrusovsky, Amanda Pierce, and Alicia Zavarella. Power plays also came from seniors Julie Jagusch, Erica Roby, Katie Davis and juniors Cara Colak and Melissa Carlone. Back row strength gave Hrusovsky many amazing setting opportunities. Senior Zavarella emphasised that "the team excelled on defense and that is what carried us so far."

The fans, led by the senior boy groupies, Michael Samber and Dominic Rapposelli, cheered relentlessly and never went home disappointed. Although the team did not defeat Mentor, they finished first with fans.

The players performance displayed the teams overall attitude that hard work, dedication and persverance creates a winning season.

The 2004 Mayfield boys soccer team had some big shoes to fill after the 2003 District championship team. The lads opened up the season with a three and one record getting outstanding play by senior captains Anthony Rucci, Billy (Lerp) Nisenboum and Chris (Aussie) Stepanek. In a hard fought game against heavily favored Brecksville, the team pulled out a bittersweet win, but lost Stepanek and junior Doug Arnold to knee injuries in the process. Seniors Joey Allen and Anthony Giannetti were a valued addition to the team and their presence cushioned the harsh blow that injuries caused the squad. First year goalie, Mike Stallano, came through for the Cats with five shutouts and earned himself a spot on the All-WRC second team. After their hot start, the team cooled off a bit and finished up the regular season with a record of six wins, five losses, and three ties.

When the playoffs came around, the Wildcats were eager to get back to full strength and show their true talents. They went in ranked eleventh out of thirteen teams in the district tournament and were ready to prove themselves worthy. Stepanek returned to play, and Arnold was able to get some minutes as well. The first game was against Geneva, and in a evenly matched game, the Wildcats were able to cruise to a 4-0 victory. Things were finally starting to look up for the lads because for the first time in weeks, they had the ability to put a full squad on the field.

The next game on the list was at Korb Field, against the state-ranked Brush Arcs. On a cold and rainy day, fans watched as the long and storied rivalry continued as one of the best played games in the history of the two schools unfolded. Finally, after two rounds of overtime play, Brush scored a goal that sent Mayfield home for the season. The team played their best and contributed a valiant effort throughout the game and the entire season. Once again, the Mayfield Wildcat men's soccer team showed they could compete with the best teams around and they were up for any challenge.

Bend it like Beckham

On August 9, 2004, at 12:01 AM, while the rest of Mayfield was asleep, the Mayfield girls soccer team held their first practice. The girls went through several weeks of two-a-days, track workouts and scrimmages to prepare for the season. The team was full of laughter on and off the field, but the girls knew when it was time to become focused.

Great leadership was provided by varsity captains, seniors, Christina Ippolito, Katherine Neidus, Bridget Gomillion and Julie Maskulka. Kicking off the season, Mayfield beat one of the toughest opponents, West Geauga, 1-0. This win was the beginning of a six game winning streak. A tie with arch rival Brush truly taught the girls how to learn and build from their mistakes. The tie also motivated the girls to practice even harder and focus on the season.

The girls played the rest of their games with determination and team work. The Lady Wildcats finished second in the WRC with a great record of 9-4-4. Throughout the season, goals were scored and assisted by all offensive players. Top scorers included Ippolito, with 17 goals, and sophomore, Valerie Korb, with seven. The strong defense was held together by Lauren Foley, Britt Grimes, Marilyn Ordonez, Sammy Markel and goalie Maskulka.

"Of the many teams that I have coached, this was probably my best and favorite team to work with," said Coach Peck. When Coach Lubin was asked to comment about the 2004 team, he replied, "How can I give you a quote about a team that left me speechless?" The Lady Wildcats truly left a mark on not only each other but Mayfield High School.

The 2004 Mayfield mens golf team showcased an excellent mix of age featuring a group of both upperclassmen, as well as underclassmen. Led by senior captain and All-WRC selection, Alan Semethy, the team progressed to a 9-9 record. Along with the seniors, coaches DiBernardo and Eden helped take some pressure off the younger golfers through their first varsity golf season.

During the season, the Wildcats pulled off some big wins, one against neighborhood rival Brush. The Cats came into the clubhouse with a total score of 169, while the Arcs followed with an inferior score of 174. The men attained another big victory against the Valley Forge Patriots. Semethy shot a 36 and junior Matt Dolciato and sophomore Joe Hollinshead both contributed with 41s.

Throughout the season, the Wildcats received strong play from senior Alex Fikaris, juniors Chris Ede and Andrew Ferrara and freshman Billy Ambrogio. Visiting teams feared playing at Mayfield’s home course, Stonewater, because of its demanding terrain. With only two of the golfers graduating this year, next season looks bright.

Constant improvement are two words that described the the Mayfield Wildcats girls golf team. The girls ended the 2004 season with a record of 9-9 and placed 5th in the Western Reserve Conference. Led by senior Megan Welsh and junior Jenn Tkacz, the team worked hard at practice each day and strived for success.

Practice and perserverance paid off when the girls beat Laurel, Brush, and Nordonia. The 2004 season was also the first time in school history that there was a junior varsity team. Coach Nidy and Coach Legan hoped that the younger girls would develop their skills and learn the course before their varsity year.

Welsh capped off a brilliant high school golf career earning her fourth varsity letter. Welsh was the first player to accomplish this in Mayfield's history. She was also named first team All-WRC for the second straight year as well as the team MVP.

Tkacz, sophomores Molly Sullivan and Helen Daher and junior Tracy Sauter consistently turned in good performances throughout the season. Tkacz and Daher were awarded honorable mention in the WRC.

"Most of the golfers will be returning for the 2005 season which should help improve our overall record," said Sullivan in response to this season.

Chariots of Fire

"That day, for no particular reason, I decided to go for a little run. So I ran to the end of the road. And when I got there, I thought maybe I'd run to the end of town. And when I got there, I thought maybe I'd just run across the County. And I figured since I run this far, maybe I'd just run across the great state of Ohio. And that's what I did. I ran clear across Ohio. For no particular reason I just kept on going. When I got hungry, I ate. When I got tired, I slept. When I had to go... You know... I went..." Forrest Gump.

This quote summed up the girls cross country season. At 6:30 a.m. every summer morning, while everyone else was still sleeping, the girls were running and preparing for their upcoming season. Indian runs, long distance, hill workouts, and mile repeats, the girls fought through all the pain with dedication and enthusiasm.

The season started with the Madison-U-Wanna-Come-Back Invitational, where junior Jen Harpp finished in 11th place and the team finished 2nd overall. The girls continued their hard practices and opened up their dual season beating arch rival Brush at the home course, Chapin Forest. Senior Tashunna Booker summed up the race against Brush by saying, "It was a tough race, but we were strong and we held on and didn't let them get us."

Senior captains Julia Samorezov and Marissa Young, kept the team in shape all season. They pushed for more at every practice and talked the runners through every meet. As the girls worked, the season became more exciting and intense. The Lady Milecats took a hard fall losing to Solon, which brought their record to 4-1. The loss didn't bring their spirits down, they continued to work hard and prepare for the WRC tournament. The team placed 4th overall out of 12 teams, 3rd in the North division, and 2nd overall in the Northern WRC. Tournament awards went to Harpp with co-MVP, sophomore Kim Lorentz with 1st team, and freshman Nikki Van Horne with 2nd team. Samorezov and sophomore Danielle Deininger received Honorable Mention. The top seven runners in the District tournament consisted of Harpp, Lorentz, Van Horne, Deininger, Samorezov, sophomore Lauren Foley, and senior Christina Ippolito. The top seven team advanced to regionals, and finished up their season. Coach Todt summed up the season with hopeful thoughts for the 2005 season, "With only two seniors in the top seven, the outlook for next year is a bright one, as many underclassmen got valuable experience."

How often do you see a runner with a smile on his face? The Mayfield mens cross country team gave truth to this statement, as their faces showed how painful, yet dedicated they were to participate in such a competitive sport. This group of dedicated athletes came together through the pain to form a team.

A week after school ended, the boys cross country team was busy preparing for their 2004 season. Senior captains Mike Jankowski, Tim Gasper, and Jimmy Deininger, worked hard to help the team condition for the many upcoming races.

Dedication, pride and dignity are only a few words that describe the 2004 men's cross country team. As in most sports, the cross-country team worked hard and at the end of the season the team was able to hold their heads up high, not because of their record, but because of what they accomplished as a team.

Bonds were made from the first day of summer practice. An enthusiastic but quiet freshmen bunch immediately began to transform into excellent runners. Freshmen on the team were Bradley Potts, Micah Caunter, John Pratson, and Eric Fredrickson, one of the strongest incoming classes the Mayfield cross country team has ever seen. Sophomores Joe Petrik, John Fadel, Reza Mohammedpour, Joe Fernandez, and Nate Rappart led their best. Juniors Chris Lyons, Justin Meden, Brian Stevens, and Colin Stinson all ran with strong dedication, improving greatly. Their strong work-ethic and great performance will make them excellent captains in the coming year. The senior class, consisting of Jimmy Deininger, Mike Jankowski, and Tim Gasper, acted as strong leaders and helped the team to improve.

The team took 7th in the WRC tournament with 178 points and 4th overall in the North Division. District qualifiers were Lyons, Mohammedpour, Fernandez, Caunter, Petrik, Rappart, and Gasper.

Second Team WRC honors went to Mohammedpour, Gasper, and Fernandez. Deininger and Caunter received Honorable Mention with Mohammedpour as the 2004 MVP.

The team kept their heads up high and ran very competitively with the rest of the conference. Mayfield definitely taught its opponents what it means to have Ailurophobia!

The Big Swim

Sometimes a little change is good. The 2004-2005 swim season started off with a brand new coaching staff, the "two Daves" and the veteran, Coach Toohig. Coach Stump brought a little mystery to the team with the motto "It's all about PLuBBER." It was a season full of changes, adjustments, and most importantly, fun and memories.

Three hour practices, five days a week including morning practice, grueling winter break training, and the circuit for dry land made up the season. Coming along for the ride were team pets: the piranha, Twast the snake, and the whale.

The boys team was led by senior captains Joey Allen and Austin Rosenberg. The team's 7-3 record proved that the boys could pull together and win. Leading by example in the pool, Rosenberg consistently dropped time all season saving his best for last with lifetime bests in all three of his events at Sectionals. Senior Sergey Sandler qualified for Districts in both the 100 Breast and 500 Free and swam best times in both. Freshman Chris Nemeth proved that you don't have to be an upperclassman to qualify for Districts; he swam the 100 Free and 100 Back. The boys 200 Medley Relay (Nemeth, Sandler, freshmen Cori Sigetic, sophomore Max Nabutovsky) and 200 Free Relay (Nemeth, Sandler, junior Jeff Simonetta, Nabutovsky) also qualified for Districts. Other key male swimmers included distance swimmers juniors Glenn Argento, Eric Rosengard, sophomores Mike Hirsch, Joe Hollinshead, Chad DiVincenzo, freshman Chris Hughes and senior rookie divers Jeff Sova and Kent Wilson. Allen went above and beyond expectations placing second at WRC, and also qualified for States and placed 20th in 1-Meter Diving.

The Lady Aquacats made history and re-wrote the record board in the 200 Free Relay by two seconds. Senior captains Jen Nemeth, Rachel VanHorne, and Aimee Calevich led the team to a 7-3 record and finished 4th at WRC. For the first time ever, Mayfield girls sent two relays to States and as if that wasn't enough, placed 16th in the 200 Medley Relay (Nemeth, sophomore Katie Sbrocco, freshman Stephanie Campbell, and junior Laura Kosmorsky) and 10th in the 200 Free Relay (Kosmorsky, senior Kate Mastrangelo, VanHorne, Nemeth) giving them the honor of "All-Ohio." The Lady Aquacats beat a tough Solon team in the final show down at Finals in the 200 Free Relay. Nemeth placed 4th in the 50 Free and 7th in the 100 Free and Kosmorsky finished 22nd in the 50 Free at States. VanHorne qualified for Districts individually in the 200 Free. Also, sophomore divers Carla Cuccarese, and juniors Miranda Fash and Shenwen Huang helped in the dual meet season. Campbell, Beth Berkey, Alexa Rinker, and Lisa Ginsburg finished strong at Sectionals in multiple events. Snagging key points in dual meets were seniors Steph Cohen, Laurel Gans, Stephanie Gans, Anne Marie Rogan, junior Katie Kraska, sophomores Emily Kovacs, Leah Tater, freshmen Charlotte Greene and Connie Nemec. Nemec scored over 40 all season. The team atmosphere would not have been complete without juniors Jenna Micale, Sammy Friedman, sophomore Molly Sullivan and Calevich. When all was said and done, Mayfield Lady Aquacats finished 16th in the state, giving Mayfield its highest state ranking to date.

The successful swimming and diving season for both teams created life long memories, friendships and school records.

The girls of the 2004 Mayfield tennis team worked together to rebuild a strong ladder. After two weeks of intense practice, the girls were prepared to start the season off with a winning streak. The top three singles players were sophomores Erin Cone, Sveta Vizelman, and senior Karena Lin. Helping the girls were seniors Lisa Asamoto, Mallory Horejs, and Cara Olie. The top four doubles players were seniors Jessica Finney, Rachael Huff, Anjana Ravi, and Megan Vandrak.

After a long season, the girls ended with a record of 11-5, which placed the team in second place in the WRC North Division Matches, third place in the WRC tournament, and fifth place in Dayton tournament. Finney and Vizelman won first place in their sectional tournament, making them two-year district qualifiers.

"With the loss of the three top players from the year before, the returning players stepped up their performance and far exceeded the expectations of the coaches," said Coach Kain in regards to the season. Along with the winning season, each girl was left with fond memories and new friends.

The Mayfield Wildcats mens tennis team had a full and exciting year. Varsity, headed by Coach Perry, showed their skill with their final record of 10 and 8. Varsity also had a winning conference record with clutch wins over Brush and Nordonia.

Varsity was lead by the consistent number one singles player, sophomore Evan Whidden who was awarded first team WRC singles and 4th in WRC. Second singles player David Chan also helped the Varsity Cats to victory. Chan was named second team WRC singles, was a quarter finalist in Sectionals, and finished 3rd in WRC for second singles. The first doubles team of sophomore Victor DiVita and freshman Scott Ibold were a key factor to the Cats winning record with their clutch wins. The first doubles team was also recognized as honorable mention for WRC doubles. The mens varsity team was also helped out greatly by senior Corey Johnson and the second doubles team of senior Austin Rosenberg and junior Dan Irwin. Overall, Varsity showed impressive experience and skill concluding another winning season for Mayfield mens tennis.

The Wildcats J.V team record did not reflect the talent on the team. J.V was lead by senior Sid Shrivastava at first singles. Freshman Pernav Reddi and Elias Kakano showed impressive teamwork helping the Wildcats with several wins at 1st doubles. The boys took close matches over Kenston and Twinsburg. Overall the season was a valuable learning lesson and will carry over to next year's season.

The 2004-2005 mens basketball team was lead by the four seniors, point guard Mike Samber, shooting guard Nick Luci, foward Craig Wilson and big man Billy Nisenboum. The team battled through an extremely tough schedule with an unfortunate 4-16 record, but according to Coach Leffler, "they never quit." The team kept a positive attitude through their long practices and tough games.

Despite their record, the team had many highlights throughout their season. The first win came at Gilmore Academy. The Wildcats struggled early in the 1st quarter, but they fought back from a 13-point deficit to make it a one-point game at the half. An intense Mayfield team came out firing in the second half against Gilmore and rolled to a 57-44 win. Nisenboum led the Wildcats with 18 points and 13 rebounds.

The second win came a few weeks later at home against Chardon. Mayfield jumped to an early 13-point lead and eventually held off Chardon with a 59-56 victory. Luci led the team with 19 points and 6 steals, and junior Anthony Valentino chipped in 14 points of his own.

Win number three came a few games later against a hungry Ravenna team, who was without a win going into this contest. The team had a rough start and were down as much as 18 in the first half. The resilient team overcame a 13-point half-time deficit and went on to win by 15 points. This game was a total team victory, as the Mayfield pressure was too much for Ravenna to handle.

The basketball team finished the year off strong by winning their fourth regular season game. They played at Willoughby South and their intense playing was too much for South to handle. Luci and junior Nick Lyczkowski turned in big plays down the stretch and despite Nisenboum's 3 for 17 night from the free throw line, the rest of the team made big plays to pull out a 63-56 win over South.

The basketball team played a long and exciting year together. The Wildcats may not have reached their expectations but they learned a lot about basketball and life through Coach Nally's, Coach Vehar's and Coach Leffler's. This mens Mayfield basketball team's experience will be remembered by many.

Love and Basketball

The 2004-2005 Lady Wildcats were led by their four senior captains, Jenna Tomaro, Christina Ippolito, Amanda Escano, and Kathryn Zetzer. From the first scrimmage in North Royalton to the last game of the year in Perry, the Lady Cats were connected like no other. Their heart and pride showed all year making each game a sight to see. The girls ended with a record of 9-12.

Their first win came in grand fashion with a 59-33 win over Kent Roosevelt. Junior Brit Grimes led the Cats with 18 points and 7 rebounds. Tomaro notched up her first double-double for the season with 14 points and 10 steals. With a few of wins and losses in between, the Lady Cats traveled to Nordonia and absolutely exploded. The final score was 74-47 as the ladies shot 63% from the foul line. Huge performances were turned in by Tomaro with 26 points, junior Jennifer Harpp with 18 points, and Ippolito with 9 points and 12 assists.

The Cats then had a huge comeback victory win in their next game against Hudson. Coming out in the second half with a new intensity, the girls finished with a 50-40 win. From big wins to heartbreaking losses, the ladies never lost their pride or intensity.

One of the most exciting games all year came at home as the Cats took on Kenston for the second time. Trying to avenge a 25 point loss earlier in the year, the ladies came out strong with a first quarter score of 14-1. The game went back and forth and was a true demonstration of athleticism. The Cats kept the Bombers two leading scorers under 8 points each, but couldn't hang on and lost 49-51. The ladies ended the regular season with a huge 64-28 win over Hawken. Leading the Cats were sophomore Danielle Deininger with 15 points, 5 rebounds and 8 steals, and Tomaro with 19 points. Grimes added 7 points and 9 rebounds, and Ippolito had 6 assists. The Cats shot 74% from the line which helped clinch the victory.

Heading into the playoffs the Cats, like any other team, had expectations to make a run and not let their season end. The girls played Shaw in the first round of the Perry Sectionals and came out on fire with a 13 point lead at half time. With no answer to Shaw's post game they inched their way back into the game. With 4 minutes left in the game, the score was within two points. Before the girls knew it the buzzer rang, final score 52 - 48 Shaw wins; a heartbreaking loss, but a great team performance all around. The Cats' amazing fans sent the seniors off with a standing ovation, and Tomaro said, "I wouldn't have wanted it to end any other way...No regrets!"

The 2005 wrestling team entered the season with two words in their mind, "State Bound." This year's team of Wildcats was one of the best the school has ever seen. Returning seniors including Alex Fikaris, all conference wrestlers Nick Palmieri and Jason Dasher, state qualifier Anthony Jiannetti, and defending state champion Mike Ward led the Cats to a dominating season. They finished the year with an 11-1 dual meet record, blowing away rival teams such as Solon, Kenston, and school's rival: the Brush Arcs. The Cats also had impressive tournament finishes like 10th place in the Ironman tournament, 1st in the Bowling Green Duals, 2nd in the Brecksville Tournament, 4th in the Mayfield Elite tournament, and 1st in the WRC conference meet.

The Cats then entered the playoffs as one of the highest ranked teams in the state and they lived up to their expectations. Blowing away all competition in the Sectional Tournament, the Cats finished 1st with 11 District qualifiers and 6 Sectional champions. The Cats turned some heads at Districts when they finished 3rd and sent juniors Greg Elliott and Matt Lerer, and seniors Fikaris, Palmieri, and Ward to the state tournament. Lerer and Palmieri finished the tournament 4th and 3rd in the state respectively. Mike Ward led the Cats to the teams fourth consecutive top five finish in the state by winning his second state championship. Ward is the school's first two-time state champion.

The Wildcats finished with a more than successful season, and proved once again to be a wrestling powerhouse in the state. Going above and beyond their goal of being "State Bound," the 2005 Wrestling Cats proved that sky is the limit for this team.

The 2004-2005 hockey season capped off the end of an amazing run for the seven graduating seniors. Justin Farmer, Mike Stallano, Alan Semethy, Kyle Napierkowski, Frank Keeling, Steve McClave, and Nick Casamatta had their last hoorah in their senior season, determined to go out strong.

Although the Wildcats graduated the most talented and prolific hockey class in Mayfield history, the young and inexperienced team worked through the distractions and skated to a 7-1 record at the beginning of the year. Under the new coaching staff of Coach Hayes, Coach Cogan and Coach Henschell, the team showed a more aggressive and offensive demeanor than in recent years. A second place finish at the Euclid Thanksgiving Tournament gave promise for the guys early on.

The boys started off well, but a small skid occurred directly after. During this stretch, Mayfield endured many late practice times, along with an abundance of games around the city of Cleveland. The Ice Cats showed their courage and perseverance and that turned into something to build off near the end of the season.

In the last regular season game of the year, Mayfield squared off in an away game against heavily favored Orange and played the best game of the year. The result was a 0-0 tie in which each team played stellar defense. Finally, playoff time rolled around and the Wildcats drew Mentor in the state tournament. The team showed a lot of grit and heart when they took on a red division team and first seed, throughout most of the game in a 6-2 loss.

The seniors were able to be a part of something special, as they amassed 3 winning seasons, 2 high school titles, 1 conference title and countless big wins over their high school careers. The coaching staff and underclassmen hope that the experience gained from the season will be a benefit to them in the future.

Bring It On

The Mayfield Wildcat cheerleaders started off their season by attending an Americheer Cheerleading Camp at Baldwin Wallace College. With rigorous early mornings, training sessions, and friend-filled late nights, the Cats improved not only upon their skills and technique, but also upon their friendships with one another. Returning home four days later, the girls found themselves woven tightly into a circle of friends, and craving more.

The Friday night football games brought even more excitement and fun. With packed stands, and enthusiastic fans, the girls were able to heighten the excitement and raise the crowd to their feet. Through cheers, chants, combinations, and tumbling passes, the girls captivated their spectators and shared loads of enthusiasm.

At the end of their season, the girls were given an opportunity to cheer at a Cleveland Brown's game. On December 19th, the girls bundled up and took to the pro-field, where they performed a full, televised game's worth of dances and cheers the many clinics had prepared them for. "It was an incredible experience," said senior varsity cheerleader Michelle Tomaro, "And I loved every moment of it!"

The end of fall came the transition from football to basketball season. With a slight change in members, the squad continued to animate the crowd through dances, routines and chants. Every week, the basketball squad filled the gym with fervor and spirit, energizing the players, and having a blast.

The girls had a wonderful season. Through incredible bonding and immense talent, the squads were able to shine through their cloudy game nights. "I wouldn't trade my time on the field for anything," said senior varsity cheerleader Anne Marie Leanza, in reflection of her Wildcat years. "I had the time of my life."

Dream to Believe

The 2005 Mayfield gymnasts proved that gymnastics is an exciting, yet demanding sport. The team had to adjust to a new coaching staff once again. Led by head coach Mrs. Escano and assistant coach Mrs. Opalich, the team worked together to achieve a high performance team score of 115.25, beating the 2004 high score by nearly five points. Throughout the season, the team continued to improve. Junior Carri Engbert said, "the team came together and pushed each other to do better than expected." Four new gymnasts joined the team, but the team remained small in numbers. There were many advantages to having a small team. The size allowed the girls to form close ties with each other, making the season even more enjoyable.

Junior captain Melissa Carlone motivated the girls to practice hard and compete to the best of their abilities during meets. Carlone had the team high score on the beam, setting a good example for the other girls. Sophomore Allison Opalich contributed team high scores on the floor, bars, and vault, while Engbert scored high points on both the floor and vault. Other key performances came from freshmen newcomers Alecia Schemmel, Jessica Carmosino, and Katelyn Stark. Juniors Lisa Stark and Lindsey Fixler, and sophomores Cindy Hinkley and Brittany Laux continued to provide the strength and high level of performance necessary to keep the team positive and competitive.

The sport of gymnastics is one of dedication, hard work, and physical strength. The 2005 Lady Wildcats proved to have all these qualities and created "a lifetime of memories and great friends," said Lisa Stark.

The Sandlot

At the beginning of the 2005 baseball season, the Mayfield Wildcat varsity team had one goal in mind for the upcoming spring. That goal was reached after a must win game against Kenston in the last game of the season. With the 6-2 victory, the Wildcats captured the Western Reserve championship for the 5th time in the last 7 years.

Although the season was highlighted by the conference championship, there were many big wins from the Wildcats that came out of the blue. An 8-0 victory over highly touted Copley, along with a mercy rule rout over the rival Brush Arcs provided some memorable games.

The pitching staff was lead by 1st team All-WRC selection junior Dave DiVita, along with 2nd team selection senior Nick Satullo and honorable mention pitcher junior Joe Pitrone. The offense was paced by WRC MVP senior Mike Stallano and 1st team All-WRC selections senior Ryan Santora and junior Joe Cannavino, who each had outstanding seasons. Catcher senior Mike Dodson ignited the bottom of the order, while DiVita got the job done batting cleanup.

Behind the pitching staff, the senior middle infield of Santora (second baseman) and Stallano (shortstop) set the school record for double plays turned in a season. Anthony Valentino turned heads with stellar play at third base, while the outfield was lead by Pinto.

The Cats finished the season with a 12-14 record, which is very deceiving. The team was in a number of close games and was able to recover nicely from a rocky 1-5 start. When it was time for conference play, Mayfield turned it up a notch, and all of the hard work paid off in the end. With only a few starters graduating, the Cats look to be in good shape for the 2006 season.

A League of Their Own

The 2005 Fast Pitch team grew as players, teammates, and friends during this season. Many players were asked to play positions they never had before but the girls were up to the challenge. The season began in February with early morning conditioning and many weeks of preparation followed. The team faced some tough opponents, but always came back the following day, determined and ready to win. The girls constantly played with heart and gave it their all. Despite the unexpected snow day in April, and weeks of rain, the girls still maintained to keep up the intensity.

Seniors, Steph Bandelow, Amanda Escano, Mimi Gordon, Michelle Marko, Liz Matejka, Kathryn Neidus, and Jenna Tomaro led the team throughout the whole season. The girls made their way onto districts because of two great wins including a win against Chardon and one against Willoughby South. The game against South went in extra innings and the girls refused to let the game slip by them. Eventually, in districts, the team played a great game against Mentor, but came up short.

The team had great moments both offensively and defensively. Junior Carrie Engbert and Escano both pitched well throughout the season. Junior, Jenna Micale, played great defense as catcher and Sophomore Allison Opalich was an important offensive players this year. "We started out slow," coach Legan said, "but we made it to districts which made everything worthwhile!" The 2005 Fast pitch team could describe the season in one word: WOO! J

Run with a Vengeance

The 2005 boys track season was one to be remembered. The well accomplished seniors, along with the hard working underclassmen, made this season memorable for coaches, team members, and parents. The team was the best Mayfield has seen since 1997 and finished with superior rankings at big meets including the West Geauga Invitational, Berea Relays, Mayfield Invitational, and in the WRC Conference. Mayfield sent 6 qualifiers to the regional meet in the 4x800m relay, 800m run, 1600m run, and the 300m hurdle events.

Seniors Joe Angelo and Kent Wilson were two of the best long jumpers the boys had seen in a long time. Angelo placed 3rd at the conference meet, 2nd at districts, and qualified for the regional meet, while earning first team all conference as well. Ryan Goldberg was one of the highest scorers adding points in both the high jump and 110m hurdles. Mayfield senior thrower Kevin Laux just missed 50 feet which is tremendous for a first year participant.

Anthony Jiannetti was the 2005 go-to-guy tying for 4th at districts and just missing regionals in the pole vault. Jiannetti also participated in the distance squad, along with Jimmy Deininger, Reza Mohammadpour, Chris Lyons, and Joe Fernandez. The 4x800 team was named 1st team all conference, and won both the conference and district title. Great individual efforts were turned in from Deininger and Mohammadpour who both qualified for the regional meet in the 800m and 1600m.

The sprint squad was led this year by seniors Mike Ballistrea and Mike Barnes, with help from junior Stefan English in the 110m hurdles and other sprinting events. Getting a respectable place and conference and districts, Barnes was one of Mayfield's best sprinters in a long time, earning honorable mention in the conference. Mike Ballistrea was no stranger to this year's team, running as a 4- year letterman and managing to go undefeated throughout the conference in the 300m hurdles. His only loss in the conference turned out to be the school record, breaking James English's old record of 39.6 with a 39.4 and Ballistrea re-broke his own record 3 times! Ballistrea finished his senior year with 2nd team all conferences, 2nd at districts, and 5th at the regional meet and was the 2005 track MVP.

Mayfield boys worked hard this year and made a respectable name for themselves for years to come.

Without Limits

Neither rain, sleet, snow, nor the cool afternoon could stop the Lady Wildcats from a successful season. The 2005 girls' varsity track season was not only impressive but had many nail biting moments. The season started with hard training in the cold winter air, with hopes of a conference title. Mother Nature though, had other thoughts in mind, as four meets in the beginning of the season were cancelled due to bad weather. The girls finished the season with a 3-2 record, beating Kenston, Nordonia and Twinsburg. The girls had an impressive 5th place finish at the WRC meet, led by junior Kristin Carver, senior Christina Ippolito, and sophomore Danielle Deiningering who all made first team all WRC. They also won both the Mayfield and West Geauga Invitationals, with great performances by seniors Anne Hu, Katya Shuster, Danielle Siracusa, Julia Samorezov, Marisa Young, and Karena Lin.

The girls had an impressive end of the year finish by qualifying six girls in seven events to regionals. The powerhouse 4x800 team of Deiningering, sophomore Val Korb, junior Jen Harpp, and sophomore Kim Lorentz qualified for regionals by taking 3rd in the district. Harpp also qualified in the beastly 1600m run and Lorentz qualified in the never ending 3200m run. Ippolito placed 8th in the pole vault by clearing her season best of 10 feet. Carver qualified for the Regional meet in an impressive 3 events, the long jump, the 100m hurdles, and 300 hurdles in which she set the school record with a time of 45.59 seconds.

When the season was over and the girls all went to get on the bus, Coach Todt called for one more meeting in which all of the girls stood up and applauded the hard working seniors for all of their good performances and support over the years. Todt said, "Congratulations girls and good luck wherever you go." While the senior girls will be missed, they left a valuable impression on the team that will be felt on 2006 season.

Ryan Santora

Ryan, we are so proud of what you have accomplished and the man you have become. We love you!

"Your children are not your children.
They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself.
They come through you but are not from you, And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.
You may give them your love but not your thoughts.
For they have their own thoughts.
You may house their bodies but not their souls,
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, nor even in your dreams.
You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you.
For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday.
You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth.
The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and He bends you with His might that His arrows may go swift and far.
Let your bending in the Archer's hand be for gladness;
For even as He loves the arrow that flies, so He loves also the bow that is stable."

Can't Hardly Wait

Despite the countdown of days left until summer vacation, students were surprised at how quickly the last day of school arrived. To quote the infamous Ferris Bueller, "Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop and look around once in a while, you could miss it." The 2005 school year, although filled with dances, sporting events, and memories with friends, flew by. For many, the high school was the home of long classes, tough exams, and grueling practices as well as the cause of early mornings, late nights and hours of homework. However, Mayfield High School continued to be a place for students to learn and to grow as individuals. As tradition will have it, the incoming class of 2010 will enter the high school with anxious thoughts of making new friends and entering a whole new phase of their lives. The departure of the class of 2005 was bittersweet as seniors both anticipated and feared what reel life had to offer. Reflecting back on their experiences at Mayfield High School, students realized they were building the foundation for their futures. Hopefully, this yearbook will help you escape from reel life for a moment and remember your times as a student at Mayfield High School.

Yours Truly,

Hailee Dorflinger

P.S. I think I'm speaking for everyone at Mayfield High School in saying goodbye and thank you to Ms. Gasbarrino (G-Rino). Whether as a friend, a teacher, or a co-worker, she has touched all of our lives and will truly be missed.
